William T. Quinlan,
UAFPA President

Greetings to everyone. As is often said around this time of year, "The holiday season is fast approaching!" From all the members of the UAFPA Executive Board, we want to wish everybody a Happy Thanksgiving!

UAFPA Negotiations Survey: We Want Your Opinion!

By now, all voting UAFPA members should have received an email survey invitation to voice their opinions regarding the upcoming UAFPA contract negotiations. If anyone has not received that email, send an email to the secretary at: badams@uafponline.org.

Too Much Monday, Not Enough Coffee

Coffee has been restored in the faculty lounge on the third floor at 1 Pace Plaza (NYC Campus)! Pace President Marvin Krislov and Provost Nira Herrmann are splitting the cost, so we want to acknowledge their generosity and give them a special thanks. Thanks also to UAFPA President Bill Quinlan, as well as UAFPA President Emeritus Barbara Lerner, who strongly advocated for our right to java!

Holiday Parties in Manhattan & Pleasantville

Join us at either of our holiday parties on Tuesday, December 12th, 4 - 6 pm.

Board members will be on hand for informal discussions of the new UAFPA constitution and our Survey regarding upcoming contract negotiations.

Manhattan Party Location

T.J. Byrnes - 77 Fulton Street (in Southbridge Towers, corner of Gold & Fulton)
Chat with President Bill Quinlan and UAFPA consultants Barbara Lerner and Lou Quintas.

Pleasantville Party Location

Butcher Suite - Kessel Student Center (upper level)
Chat with VP Dan Rosen and Pleasantville union rep Carl Jensen, as well as NYSUT Labor Relations Specialist Moriah Olsen.
